Important Notice – Please Read

Air Factory is a supplier of recreational and other related services and is subject to the Australian Consumer Law. It is important that you read the Conditions of Entry below, as all recreational services and activities (including all sporting or leisure activity of any kind) conducted at the Air Factory premises are subject to those Conditions of Entry.

WARNING: The recreational, training, fitness and coaching activities provided by Air Factory carry inherent risks, which can result in serious personal injury and/or death. Particular risks include twists, sprains, broken bones, spinal injury, paralysis, physical injury and/or death, which is why it is important to understand the Conditions of Entry and comply with all instructions provided by, or on behalf of, the Air Factory.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The Conditions of Entry apply to all entry tickets and use of our facilities.

1. By participating in the recreational activities or other activities, you accept the inherent risks associated with those activities at our premises. As such, you agree to:
 - a. release Air Factory and all persons or corporations associated directly or indirectly with the conduct of all recreational activities from all claims, demands and proceedings arising out of your participation; and
 - b. indemnify and hold harmless Air Factory (and all associated or related people, entities or companies) against all liability (including liability for their negligence and the negligence of others), damage and expense associated with all injury, loss or damage arising out of or connected with your participation in the recreational activities, and the participation of any person you have booked the recreational services for.

Basically, you agree not to sue Air Factory if something goes wrong and you hurt yourself or someone else and that you are liable if you are hurt.

2. Children under the age of 13 years are not permitted to engage in the recreational activities unless under the direct supervision of a parent or guardian at all times. Where you are responsible for the supervision of any children in your care, you agree to be bound by these conditions of entry on their behalf.
3. Children between the ages of 13 – 18 years are not permitted to engage in the recreational activities without the consent of a parent or guardian.
4. You may not:
 - a. bring glassware, food (including commercially prepared food), beverages, eskies or coolers to the premises;
 - b. before, or during, the recreational activities consume alcohol or chew chewing gum; or
 - c. smoke on the premises.
5. Photographs, movies or videos taken by you must be for your own personal use and enjoyment and not for any commercial purpose. No flash photography is allowed on the premises.
6. For safety reasons:
 - a. The maximum weight limit for an individual is 110 kg.
 - b. You must only use socks purchased from Air Factory when engaged in the recreational activities.
 - c. Mobile phones and other electronic devices must not be used during recreational activities.
7. You may be removed from the premises for inappropriate behaviour. You may be refused entry or removed from the premises if you are under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
8. You must comply with all signs on the premises and any verbal directions issued by Air Factory staff.
9. You consent (and consent on behalf of any child under your supervision) to receiving any medical treatment that Air Factory considers reasonably necessary during or after engagement in the recreational activities, and you agree to reimburse Air Factory for any associated costs.
10. You are responsible for all your personal property on the premises at all times.

By signing below you confirm that you have read and understood the Conditions of Entry set out above and agree to them.
